South of the Circle is an emotional narrative experience exploring the relationship between Peter and Clara, Cambridge academics caught up in the political conflict of the Cold War.

THE STORY FOCUSES ON THE WEIGHT OF LIFE CHOICES BETWEEN CAREER, TRUE LOVE AND THE DESIRE TO KEEP OUR PROMISES.

Created by BAFTA winners State of Play, the game's beautiful aesthetic and nuanced writing underlines its sweeping cinematic scope, further enhanced by actors drawn from "Bohemian Rhapsody" (Gwilym Lee), "The Woman in White" (Olivia Vinall), "The Crown" (Richard Goulding), "Game of Thrones" (Anton Lesser), "Chernobyl" (Adrian Rawlins) and "Downton Abbey" (Michael Fox).
